

Kennedy plot to 'remove' Castro verified

Plan included assassination, says retired general

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retired Maj. Gen. Edward G. Lansdale said Friday that, acting on orders from President John F. Kennedy delivered through an intermediary, he developed plans for removing Cuban Premier Fidel Castro by any means, including assassination.

"I just wanted to see if the United States had any such capabilities," said the one-time Air Force officer and expert on counterinsurgency tactics. In a telephone interview, Lansdale stressed that his planning effort included other means, such as a coup, for removing Castro from power.

Asked if any attempts against Castro's life were made as a result of his project, Lansdale said, "Certainly nothing I ever heard about.

Nothing was ever initiated on it as far as I know." However, a source familiar with the tentative findings of the Rockefeller Commission on the Central Intelligence Agency said he had been told some subsequent assassination efforts were undertaken.

Although Lansdale avoided using the word "assassination," he twice replied in the affirmative to the specific question of whether assassination was one of the means he considered.

"I was working for the highest authority in the land," Lansdale said of his project. Asked to be more specific, Lansdale replied, "It was the President."

Lansdale said he did not deal directly with President Kennedy on the project but worked through an intermediary. Asked if the intermediary was McGeorge Bundy, then President Kennedy's assistant for national security affairs, Lansdale replied, "No, it was someone much more intimate."

However, he refused to provide the intermediary's name for the record.

According to Lansdale, he was assigned to the project in 1962 when the U.S. first received intelligence that Castro was prepared to install Soviet-made nuclear missiles in Cuba. "It was something that was very closely held then and still is."

U.S. pays $17 billion to get high on drugs

15,000 deaths linked to drug abuse

WASHINGTON (AP) — The measurable cost of drug abuse in the United States, not including alcohol, is between $10 billion and $17 billion a year and will continue to rise, a federal advisory group said Friday.

"If the $25 billion a year estimated cost of alcohol abuse and alcoholism is added, the combined dollar costs of alcohol and drug abuse can be conservatively estimated at $35 billion a year," the group said in a report to President Ford.

The group estimated there are 250,000 to 600,000 heroin addicts in the United States and said "more than 15,000 people a year lose their lives in drug-implicated circumstances."

Unless checked, the study said, "drug abuse could spread through populations like a communicable disease."

The report, printed in a 102-page pamphlet, was submitted by Dr. Robert L. DuPont, chairman of the Strategy Council on Drug Abuse. The group was established to develop federal drug programs.

The report criticized hastily conceived education programs of the 1960s as "designed to frighten young people away from drug use." The results, the study said, were disbelief in official pronouncements and alienation of the people the programs were designed to help.

"The public's early simplistic reaction to the widespread use of marijuana resulted in social damage," the report said. "Punishment at the user level overshadowed the recognition of marijuana use as a social problem."

Criminal punishment for marijuana possession did not deter its use, the study said. "Instead, it resulted in damage to many young people by saddling them with criminal records at the beginning of their productive lives and by reinforcing disrespect for the legal system."

Calling the effects of drugs on individual, family and community life unmeasurable, the group gave these measurable social costs:

—Annual property loss due to drug-related property crime, $6.3 billion.

—Health costs, nearly $200 million.

—Criminal justice, $620 million with more than half of state and local costs related to marijuana.

—Loss of productivity because of deaths, medical problems, absenteeism and unemployment, $1.5 billion.

—Direct drug abuse program costs, $1.1 billion.

Three are jailed in drug raid

Chino police arrested two men and a woman and confiscated a quantity of heroin and four weapons in an apartment at 5193 Revere St. Friday afternoon.

Booked into Chino jail were Richard Rodriguez Garnica, 26, occupant of apartment six at that address; his wife, Kathy Ann Garnica, 21; and Terry Lee Rose, 24, 313 S. 2nd Ave., Upland.

Garnica was charged with suspicion of receiving and possessing stolen property, possession of heroin for sale and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Mrs. Garnica was charged with suspicion of receiving and possessing stolen property and possession of heroin for sale.

Rose was charged with suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs for sale.

All three will be arraigned Monday in Chino Municipal Court.

Police arrested Garnica and Rose at 3:50 p.m. and confiscated two loaded pistols and two rifles, an estimated $4,200 worth of cut and bagged heroin and a quantity of raw heroin, they said.

When Mrs. Garnica returned to the apartment at 5 p.m. she was placed under arrest.

To meet Ford in Austria

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Egyptian President Anwar Sadat, en route to a meeting with President Ford, said Friday "we are heading for peace from our side" in the Middle East conflict.

He is to meet with Ford in Salzburg, Austria, Sunday and Monday to discuss reconvening of the Geneva conference on the Mideast. Sadat called Ford "an honest and straightforward man," and said he expected to review "all repercussions of the failure" of Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger's peace mission earlier this year.

Washington, apparently feeling Israel had been too reluctant to grant any concessions during Kissinger's shuttle efforts, ordered a reassessment of its Middle East policies.

Sadat noted this reassessment was under way and added:

"There is no alternative (to the Geneva conference) for us if we are heading for peace. We are heading for peace from our side. We will be discussing all the possibilities for convening the Geneva conference, especially when we know that the United States and the Soviet Union sponsor the Geneva conference and guarantee the immediate implementation of United Nations resolutions" calling on Israel to withdraw from occupied Arab territory.

Sadat did not elaborate on the U.S.-Soviet guarantees.

He spoke briefly with newsmen after a two-hour conference with Austrian Chancellor Bruno Kreisky that was interpreted mainly as a courtesy gesture to the host country for the meeting with Ford.

Sadat arrived from Yugoslavia where he visited with President Tito at Tito's summer home in Slovenija.

House to vote on Ford's veto of job act next week

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House vote on overriding President Ford's veto of a $5.3 billion emergency employment appropriation act was tentatively scheduled Friday for next week.

House Appropriations Committee Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., charged that Ford had distorted Congress' action on the measure and said, "I shall support a vote to override."

The House passed the final version of the bill May 14, 293 to 109, a margin well above the two-thirds that would be required to override a veto.

The Senate passed it by voice vote, but it had approved an earlier version 53 to 14. Chances of sustaining the veto appeared to rest on the White House's ability to convince Republicans who voted for the bill to reverse their stand.

Ford said in his veto message the bill would authorize spending, over two years, of $3.3 billion more than he had recommended in the budget. He said the job-stimulating aspects of the bill, which among other things would fund extensive public works, would be slow in taking hold and would require the government to borrow more money at a time when reviving business also would be seeking credit.

Accordingly, he said, the bill "would contribute to choking off the very economic growth it is intended to stimulate."

Mahon, who is in Lubbock, Tex., challenged Ford's conclusions in a statement issued by his office here.

Super powers asked to step up efforts

Quicker nuclear disarming urged

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) — The 56-nation conference reviewing the treaty banning the spread of nuclear weapons ended four weeks of talks Friday night with a compromise declaration aimed at softening sharp differences between nuclear powers and some havenots.

Key parts of the declaration, adopted without a vote, urged the superpowers to step up the nuclear disarmament efforts to which they are pledged under the five-year-old "non-proliferation treaty."

It also called on the United States and the Soviet Union to conclude "at the earliest possible date" their new strategic arms limitation agreement and push followup negotiations.

Mexico, Yugoslavia, and other nonaligned countries had pressed for much more specific commitments from the nuclear powers. They announced a "consent not to object" to the final declaration but made plain their disappointment with the outcome of the talks.

Yugoslav delegate Milos Lalovic charged that the nuclear powers had not fulfilled any of the basic obligations assumed under the treaty and that nuclear buildup was continuing.

He said Yugoslavia would "re-examine its attitude toward the treaty and draw corresponding conclusions." He declined to reply when asked whether Yugoslavia and perhaps others might pull out of the treaty, which is now ratified by 94 nations.

The United States and the Soviet Union both gave broad backing to the final declaration. American delegate David Klein called it a "practical and comprehensive course of action for strengthening the non-proliferation regime."

June 23 set for SALT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union agreed Friday to resume the Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT) on June 23 in Geneva, the State Department announced.

The talks have been recessed since May 8 when negotiations were broken off to allow the delegations to consult with their governments.

Action plea from hospitals ignored

Doctors insurance pool delayed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Despite pleas from hospitals for fast action, the state insurance commissioner said Friday he would wait until next week to announce whether a medical malpractice insurance pool will be started in eight Northern California counties.

The pool can be implemented under emergency legislation aimed at ending the month-old doctors' boycott.

At a hearing held by the commissioner Friday, doctors and insurance firms expressed misgivings about the new statewide malpractice insurance program.

But hospital representatives cited a $200,000-$300,000 daily loss in San Francisco alone and urged that it be started as soon as possible.

Insurance company spokesmen told Insurance Commissioner Wesley Kinder that of the 3,370 doctors in eight Northern California counties now involved, only 628 still have no malpractice insurance coverage.

Doctors urged that any decision be put off for a week to allow continuation of negotiations aimed at settling the medical malpractice insurance crisis and eliminating the necessity of implementing the new law signed by Gov. Edmund Brown Jr. on May 23.

Kinder later said he would wait until next Friday to announce his findings.

"My daughter Janette rushed down and I asked her if she was wearing a pink nightie. She was."

"When I fell I cursed the dog," Lawrence said. "You horrible hound, I yelled at him. But he gave me back my sight."

Lawrence, a carpenter before his sight went, has worked as a telephone operator in the bank for the last four years.

His boss, bank manager Keith Francis, said, "We were overcome when he told us he'd recovered his sight. He's got his job for as long as he wants."

Omar will have to be returned to the organization that trains guide dogs for the blind.

"I'll be sorry," Lawrence said. "He's a wonderful dog." Omar got a steak as a bonus.

Car sales slip, rebate extended

Chrysler Corp., with its sales still running more than 30 per cent behind last year, said Friday it is extending a price rebate program through June on some models.

The firm said $200 rebates will be granted to purchasers of compact Darts and Valentines, the Dodge Sportsman or Tradesman vans and the Plymouth Voyager. The purchased model must be in stock to qualify for the discount.

At the same time there were these other auto industry developments:

—Ford Motor Co. said it will cut production and increase layoffs next week while the other major American auto firms will continue to operate all their plants. Ford also announced a brake pedal problem is causing it to recall some 24,000 chassis units for trucks and buses, including some school buses.

—A new oil company mileage test showed the Japanese Honda getting the best gasoline mileage of any car.

Chrysler reported its rebate sales up as it announced expansion of the program. A spokesman said daily sales of models rebated in the first 20 days of May were 1,231, up from 716 in April.

A Chrysler spokesman said sales of the compact models normally rise about 15 per cent from April to May. He said the firm has a 104-day supply of Darts and Valentines on hand and an aggregate 91-day supply of all models. A 60-day supply is considered ample.

He said profit margins were cut by rebates but improved sales allowed Chrysler to keep assembly lines moving. "All our factories are running. The guys are working, that's the important thing."

The latest Chrysler rebates began May 1 after its share of the domestic market slipped 3 percentage points to about 12 per cent in early April. Its share was back up to 13.8 per cent by mid-May.

General Motors, Ford Motor Co. and American Motors declined to follow Chrysler's lead in the spring rebate package and analysts predict they won't feel forced to join it now, although mid-May sales of all domestic autos were 27 per cent below a year ago.

The other auto makers had joined in rebates after Chrysler started a program in mid-January. Winter rebates ended Feb. 28 on most cars.

Ford said it will suspend production for one week beginning next Monday on three assembly lines, putting a total of 4,250 assemblies off the job at plants in Chicago, Los Angeles and Kansas City.

Ford is the only auto company scheduling temporary layoffs next week and it is also increasing indefinite layoffs by 125, meaning 159,041 of the industry's 712,000 hourly workers will be off the job with no definite return date.

Next week's industry jobless toll, including temporary and indefinite layoffs, will be 163,291 — up about 1,300 from last week despite the end of indefinite furloughs for 3,609 workers at GM, Chrysler and AMC. There were no temporary layoffs in the industry last week for the first time this year.

Speaker on aging planned

Mrs. Rose Marie Smith of Los Angeles, the founder of the Journey's End Foundation Fund, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Pomona Valley Council on Aging at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

The event will be held in the Pilgrim Congregational Church in Pomona.

Mrs. Smith will show a film, "Journey's End," which will explain the work of her organization.

The JEFF is dedicated to publicizing the positive side of death, according to the founder.

"We are trying to change the image," she explained. "The subject of death has been kept in the closet too long. It needs some kind of liberation."

The Pomona Valley Council on Aging is offering free assistance to senior citizens in filing forms for tax exemptions as well as other applications.

G. Nelson Lortie, senior citizen's specialist, said the agency located in Room 120, at 350 W. Mission Blvd., Pomona, has not only the forms but also the qualified personnel to help those who need assistance in filling out forms.

Office hours are from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Sky is falling, no, it's ice

A 50-pound block of ice fell from the sky and crashed through the roof of a house in Chino about 5 p.m. Friday.

Chino police theorize it fell from a high-flying plane.

A neighbor called police when he thought he heard an explosion in the house next door.

Police arrived at the house at 12474 Kumquat St., found no one at home, but a big hole in the roof and a large block of ice melting on the floor.

Police did not know the name of the occupant.

Talk on jobs to be given

Alfred Ramos of the Mexican-American Opportunity Foundation will be the guest speaker for a meeting of the Chino Community Action Council Monday at 7 p.m. in the Community Building.

Ramos will discuss summer job opportunities for local youths. The foundation he represents acquires jobs for Mexican-Americans.

In oil company tests at Ontario

Top gas saver: it's a Honda Civic

The Honda Civic Sport CVCC, with its stratified-charge engine, recorded the best gasoline mileage in an oil company's fuel economy tests at Ontario Motor Speedway, it was revealed Friday.

The small, four-cylinder car with a five-speed transmission yielded 28.2 miles per gallon in urban driving conditions, with mileage increasing to 33.6 in suburban driving and to 34.0 under simulated interstate conditions.

Four days of testing, conducted by the Union Oil Co. of California, were completed Friday at OMS. Twenty-five foreign and domestic cars tested were recently introduced models not available when Union tested 82 new cars last November at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Driving at Ontario was completed under Society of Automotive Engineers standards, with urban driving under simulated stop-and-go conditions with 15 mile-an-hour average speed. Suburban driving averaged 40 with acceleration and slowing down and occasional stops. Interstate averages were 55 with some speeding up and slowing down but no stops.

Biggest surprise in the tests was the Volkswagen Rabbit with more stringent California emission controls, which normally lower mileage. The Rabbit with stricter controls came in second best overall with 25.3 in urban conditions, 32.6 suburban and 31.0 on the open highway.

The same car with controls for the other 49 states had 23.5 in urban, 30.5 in suburban and 31.1 for interstate travel.

All other cars conducted in the second phase of the Union tests showed poorer mileage when models needed extra emission controls to meet California's tighter standards.

The Seville, a new smaller Cadillac, had 12.0 miles per gallon in urban driving for the 49-state model and 9.7 for the California version. In suburban conditions, the nationwide model had 17.6 against 16.0 for the California model, and on the highway it was 18.8 against 16.9 for the more tightly-controlled car.

Other cars in the test which recorded good mileage figures include the Volkswagen Beetle, with 24.2, 30.8 and 30.5 marks for urban, suburban and interstate driving; the Audi Fox with 22.7, 32.0 and 33.3 figures; Fiat 128, at 19.2, 25.2 and 25.2; Dodge Colt, 20.2, 27.0 and 27.6; and Volkswagen Dasher, 21.5, 27.1 and 28.4%.

Datsun 610 recorded 22.4 for urban driving, 27.7 suburban and 28.1, for interstate travel; Toyota Celica GT had 20.4, 26.0 and 28.3 figures; Audi 100 LS (with California standards), 15.4, 21.4, and 23.2; Audi 100 LS (without California controls), 15.0, 22.5 and 23.8; Datsun 280Z, 16.6, 22.9, 25.0; Mazda RX-4, 14.1, 19.5 and 20.2; Mercury Bobcat, 20.6, 27.3, 29.4; Mercury Capri II, 15.9, 23.6 and 24.7.

AMC Pacer had 15.6 for urban driving, 20.5 suburban and 21.5 interstate. AMC Pacer X without California controls had 13.9, 18.6 and 19.7; the same car with the controls had 12.1, 17.3 and 16.9.

Also, the Ford Mustang 11 had a mark of 14.0 for urban driving, 20.4 suburban and 21.8 interstate. Volvo 164 E had 12.8, 18.1 and 19.0; Plymouth Duster, 15.4, 23.7 and 25.6; and a Mercedes 450 SEL recorded 8.8, 15.4 and 16.8 figures.

Man charged in store theft

Upland detectives have charged that a 19-year-old local man pretended to be a robbery victim nearly eight months ago at a Stop N Go Market, 656 N. Mountain Ave., Upland.

Matthew Norris Phillips was arrested on a grand theft warrant at his home at 360 S. Benson Ave., Upland, and booked into West End Jail. Bail was set at $5,000.

Phillips told police officers Oct. 8 that he had been held up at knife point by two men, and locked in a wall-in locker. He escaped by climbing along a shelf and through a small door customers use to get commodities.

The robbers escaped on foot.

Two suspects were arrested, a 17-year-old pleaded guilty to grand theft, and will be sentenced in about six months. He could receive up to one year in county jail.

Gerald Mowll, 18, 1363 W. 11th Ave., Upland, also pleaded guilty to accessory to grand theft, and will be sentenced in West Valley Superior Court July 9.

Detectives said they believe Phillips was the brains in the fake robbery.

Judge denies move against death penalty

Pomona Superior Court Judge Charles N. Vogel Friday denied a motion that would have prevented the prosecution from seeking the death penalty against defendant Gregory White, 20, charged with murder, kidnapping and attempted murder.

Another defense motion to dismiss the charges against White was also denied by Judge Vogel.

White, of Rowland Heights, is one of four men accused of slaying Adelbert Hempy, 34, and Michael O'Hara, 25, and wounding Anteleon Sanchez, 29, on Feb. 5 in an incident authorities believe involved two motorcycle gangs.

Another defense motion to sever White's trial from the other defendants was held over for consideration on June 4.

The other defendants in the case are Donald Kelson, 25, of Ontario, Charles Evans, 34, of Lawdale, and David Dupres, 19, of Torrance.

Defendant bound over for trial

Gregory Thomas, 21, charged in the slaying of a 71-year-old woman, was bound over for trial on charges of murder, rape and burglary Friday following a preliminary hearing in Pomona Municipal Court.

He is scheduled to appear in Pomona Superior Court on June 13.

Thomas, of Pomona, is charged with the slaying of Miss Tessie Fern Williams, 78, at her home at 645½ N. Huntington Blvd., Pomona, on April 7.

Miss Williams body was discovered in her home, which had been burglarized.

Friday's preliminary hearing was closed to spectators due to a defense motion.

ROTC's 2nd ball planned

Cadets in Chino High School's Air Force Junior ROTC will hold their second annual military ball tonight at 6 in the Pomona Elks Lodge ballroom.

Capt. Charles E. Seeger, U.S. Navy, will be guest speaker and other guests include John Madole, commander of American Legion Post 299 and Robert N. Troutman, Sons of the American Revolution.

A number of awards will be presented, including one honoring the outstanding AFJROTC cadet. The ball will include dinner and dancing until midnight.

Man's death investigated

Ontario police are investigating the death of a 41-year-old Rialto man, who was the apparent victim of a drug overdose.

Officers said Joe R. Seanez was pronounced dead at the scene at 619 W. Park St., Ontario, Thursday about 1 p.m. Authorities indicated he was found lying on the floor of a garage, on top of a hypodermic needle.

A friend of Seanez had called officers to the home after finding the victim motionless.

Valley man gives plea of guilty

A Pomona man accused of a variety of charges, including one of assault with a deadly weapon, has pleaded guilty to first-degree robbery before Pomona Municipal Court Judge James H. Piatt.

He is Ray Richard Ayala, 25, who entered the plea when he appeared for trial before Piatt, who was presiding as a Superior Court judge.

Ayala also had been accused of wounding Bernard Volkas, 57, who was shot in the chest during a robbery last summer of the Quas Egg Ranch at 3531 Pomona Blvd.

Ayala originally was named in an eight-count complaint which charged him with the Volkas wounding, two counts of robbery, (a fishing tackle shop and a service station), possession of heroin and three counts of burglary.

Deputy Dist. Atty. Bob Higa said that Ayala could draw a minimum prison term of 10 years. He said the robbery Ayala admitted was that of the fishing tackle shop.

Judge Piatt scheduled Ayala's probation hearing and sentencing for June 23.

Send-a-kid-to-camp

Meet Walter, age 11

—shy, well-behaved,

anxious to go to camp

Hitting Trail

Youngsters head for the hiking trail, one of many camping activities. You can help send a child to camp this summer by mailing a check to the Donrey Public Foundation Inc.

Walter is 11 and wants very much to attend camp this summer.

He is the third child in a family of seven boys ranging in age from 6 to 14.

Walter lives with his brothers in a three-bedroom house. His mother must pay the rent and clothe and feed her seven children on the monthly welfare check she receives from the county.

Walter's father deserted the family several years ago and they have not heard from him since.

Teachers and friends of Walter's know him as a shy well-behaved child. He likes to stay close to home but for the first time has expressed a desire to go somewhere. He wants to go to camp.

L.C. is 12. He lives with his mother and father and eight brothers and sisters in a tiny house in Pomona.

L.C. has never been to camp and in fact has only been as far as downtown Los Angeles.

His father is unemployed and until he can find a job the family must subsist on welfare.

L.C. is a good student and his teachers say he has a lot of ambition and drive to succeed. He is regarded by many persons as a boy that tries hard.

Won't you help Walter and L.C. and other children like them to go to Bluff Lake camp?

The Donrey Public Foundation, Inc., is conducting a drive to send local needy children to a week of summer camp. They cannot go without help.

Send in your tax deductible contribution to the Donrey Public Foundation, P.O. Box 2708, Pomona, Calif. 91766.

There are no administrative costs in the drive and all money contributed will go directly to help a child go to camp.

A list of contributors will be printed in the Progress-Bulletin unless contributors wish to remain anonymous.

Mikesell hopeful about Foothill Fwy. funds

Federal funds to build the Foothill Freeway in San Bernardino County may soon be available if state agencies expedite development of the project's final plans and specifications.

San Bernardino County Supervisor Daniel Mikesell gave this report to Upland Chamber of Commerce members at a recent breakfast meeting.

Having recently returned from Washington, D.C., Mikesell said he learned that only 10 to 15 per cent of the $11.4 billion provided under the Federal Public Transportation Act would be used for interstate systems, with the remainder available for local connector routes such as the Foothill Freeway.

The Foothill Freeway is planned to extend from Sylmar to Redlands, a distance of 85 miles. Those sections in Los Angeles County are either completed or under construction as far as La Verne since they are included in the federal interstate system.

Work through the rest of the Valley and in San Bernardino County, however, has been delayed since this freeway section is not part of the federal interstate system and hasn't been eligible for federal funding.

Mikesell said the first order of business is to insist that state officials immediately complete plans so the freeway will be eligible when funds are offered.

The Ontario supervisor said he learned of the possible funding in discussions with Rep. Robert Jones, who serves as chairman of the House Transportation Committee, and Sen. Lloyd Benson, who heads the Senate Subcommittee on Highways.

Mikesell took issue with a recent statement by the Southern California Association of Governments that the Foothill Freeway is unimportant.

The supervisor plans to return to Washington next week to testify before the House Transportation Committee in support of continuing the federal aviation trust funds which expire June 30.

The program was started in 1970 to finance airport improvements with revenue received from those using airports rather than increasing property taxes, he explained.

Mikesell also spoke in support of the federal government continuing its revenue sharing program. During the past three years, San Bernardino County has received about $40 million for use on capital improvement projects, he said.

Judge drops murder case

A Hacienda Heights woman won dismissal of a murder charge against her in Pomona Superior Court when her attorney, Deputy Public Defender William Klump argued that the fatal wounding of her husband was nearer self defense than murder.

The woman, Mrs. Rachel Disson, 31, had been charged with murder in the slaying of her husband, Gary, 35-year-old salesman. Disson was shot in the head with his own pistol early the morning of April 2. He died in a hospital 90 minutes later. The couple's two children, ages 11 and 14, were asleep in the Disson home at 15434 Barata St. when their parents got into an argument and the shooting ensued.

The dismissal, by Pomona Superior Court Judge Charles N. Vogel, does not preclude the district attorney's office from filing a lesser charge against Mrs. Disson, authorities said.

School management study under way

A four-member management assistance team from the state Department of Education's Bureau of Management Services Thursday began a study of the organizational, administrative and operational processes of the Pomona Unified School District.

School board President Don Donnelly said the team, assisted by two representatives from the Los Angeles County Schools office, spent five hours at the Education Center making "preliminary preparations."

This study is being done at the invitation of the school board and administration.

In mid-March, schools Supt. Robert E. Wentz, then school board President Ken Pine, and Lynn Rountree, assistant superintendent of personnel services, flew to Sacramento to make a formal request for a study of procedures and practices in the district.

Donnelly made public a 10-point goal statement, designed to "provide optimum educational services that focus on the educational desires and requirements of the district's citizens" being used by the management team.

The whole study, Donnelly said, is to enhance the district's operation and increase its ability to be prepared for and responsive to the changing needs, desires and demands of the citizens it serves.

Among the goals of the study are: —To assist personnel in developing techniques to effectively identify the social, ethnic and business communities the district serves.

—To suggest ways the district can contact, open communication with and involve those groups.

—To assure an on-going program of involvement so continuous reactions may be obtained regarding desired programs and services, problems with current programs and services and significant changes in the groups.

—To suggest improvements, clarifications and simplifications where necessary in management practices, budget development and fiscal administration in the district.

—To identify potential inefficiencies and improve capabilities in administrative, business, personnel and educational services and special projects and programs.

—To evaluate the current budget development process and make recommendations for improvement.

—To review income and expenditure projections for 1975-76 and 1976-77, and make recommendations.

—To analyze accounting, purchasing and warehousing, maintenance and operations, safety and business services to identify unnecessary services, processes and procedures.

—To review short and long term enrollment projections, facility utilization and long-range planning.

—To encourage employee organizational involvement.

Donnelly did not comment on how long the study would take to complete.

president of the School of Theology in Claremont.

Hildebrand's son Tom is a member of the graduating class.

A sandwich lunch will be served at Price Dining Hall at noon.

Profits threatened by strikes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Times Mirror's second quarter profits are being threatened by a strike at two of the company's newspaper plants in Oregon, says a company spokesman.

Dr. Franklin D. Murphy, chairman of Times Mirror, said there were few signs of a quick end to the strike which began April 2.

Times Mirror profits for the first quarter which ended March 23 were reported at $7.45 million, or 22 cents a share, down about 18 per cent from $8.97 million, or 27 cents a share, for the first quarter in 1974.

"Results will be even less favorable in the second quarter" because of the strike, Murphy told a shareholders' meeting Wednesday.

Murphy predicted, however, a strong showing by Times Mirror's book publishing, television broadcasting and information would continue.

Otis Chandler, publisher of the Los Angeles Times and vice chairman of Times Mirror, declined comment when attempts were made to question him on a current dispute with independent newspaper dealers.

The dispute involves the Times' insistence that the paper can set a maximum resale price which the dealers can charge Times subscribers.

Chandler said he would not comment on the dispute on the ground the issues are the basis of several lawsuits.

Following the meeting, Times Mirror directors voted the company's regular quarterly dividend of 12½ cents a share, payable June 24 to stockholders of record June 9.

Acrobat, dance show scheduled

A tap dance and acrobatic show, sponsored by the Claremont Recreation Department, will be given by students of Welthee Keenan at Taylor Hall Sunday from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

Children 3 to 12 and adults will demonstrate their skills in ballet, tap, acrobatics, modern dance and jazz.

The show is open to the public.

Claremont okays lunch and job projects

The Claremont City Council has adopted resolutions endorsing proposals for funds to establish a summer youth employment program and a summer lunch program.

City Human Resources Coordinator Pete West reported that he is seeking funds either directly from Los Angeles County or through a county manpower advisory committee. The newly formed Valley Manpower Consortium or the 1974 sponsor, the East San Gabriel Valley Association of Coordinating Councils, will operate the youth employment program.

West said that at least 10 city departments and community agencies have made formal requests for youth to train this summer. West estimated that the program would fund jobs for 70 youths the same as last summer.

West said that he and the city

Parks and Recreation Department again will operate a summer lunch program for about 600 children at Vista and Oakmont elementary schools, and El Barrio and Blaisdell parks. He projected the serving of 2,000 meals during 50 days of summer vacation.

He noted that the city also will be handling 60 meals for those attending a tutorial program for Mexican-American children in La Verne.

The council in other actions approved a final map for a 40-lot tract for Lewis Homes, Inc., east of Claremont Heights Drive and north of Base Line Road.

The council had approved the tentative map Oct. 30, 1973. Minimum lot size is 13,000 square feet. The 20-acre tract will be developed as a horse zone, where residents can own horses.

The council approved the extension of sewers along Base Line Road and Mills Avenue to allow service to this Lewis tract and to a 20-acre, 51-lot Lewis Homes subdivision between Mills Avenue, Bluefield Drive, and Grand Avenue. The council approved a tentative map for the latter tract in December 1973, but not a final map.

The council also directed the city staff to obtain proposals from engineering consultants to perform an update of the city sewer master plan.

City Manager Norman King said the proposed sewer lines would serve more than the Lewis tracts. He explained that the lines would make sewers conveniently available for the residents of Bluefield Drive, Sebastopol Court and Chara Avenue if they desired them via assessment district construction.

King said the Base Line sewer construction would make sewers available for Claremont Heights Drive as an added incentive for that area's annexation to the city.

Claremont Heights Drive residents by a narrow 19-18 margin turned down annexation to the city Nov. 5, 1974.

Mayor Bertye Smith was the only councilman objecting to a council motion that Claremont Fire Department personnel be given physical examinations by the county Department of Personnel Occupational Health Services. Mrs. Smith said she would like to wait until the city joins the Consolidated Fire Protection District.

Meanwhile, the county Board of Supervisors Tuesday approved the annexation of the city of Claremont to the district and instructed district officials and administrative officer to submit an agreement for approval.

BE AN EFFECTIVE CHRISTIAN

Dear Jo: I am a new Christian and want my life to count. What is the best way?

Dear Christian: To be truly effective we must be led by God, Himself, and He tells us how in the Bible. First, we are to seek Him in prayer. This is our communication with Him. Go to Him often with praise and thanksgiving, as well as petitions, and He has promised to answer. Second, get into a systematic study of the Bible. This is His communication with us, and our source of spiritual food. Peter tells us, "As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby." God uses the willing heart — and blesses it.

Thinking important

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Cartoonist-teacher Roger Bollen says that thinking is more important than techniques for would-be humorous illustrators.

Bollen, creator of the cartoon strip, "Animal Crackers," that features a love-spurned lion and a peanut butter sandwich-loving elephant, spends eight hours a week teaching 20 hand-picked graphic design students at Kent State University.

"I have them taking a subject which could be grim and giving it humor," he says. "If they have that weapon in their arsenal when they leave here, they're going to do better in the job market."

BERNICE BEDE OSOL

Sunday, June 1

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Be extra-careful who you take into your confidence today. Don't disclose information to one known to talk too freely.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) You'll receive strong feelers from a friend who wants to borrow something. Follow your instincts, to avoid being taken.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) The ends do not justify the means for you today. Don't to anything that could sacrifice your good name for a temporary gain.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Hiding your motives for fear of rejection is folly. You're better off leveling with friends you seek help from. They'll know if you don't.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Be extra wary in conducting business today. A sly salesman could easily rip you off.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're much too wishywashy today for your own good. If you're not aware of this, a stronger personality will take advantage of you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Your attention span is not up to the task you've tackled today. You're a good starter, but a poor finisher.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Be moderate in partaking of the good things of life. Overindulgence comes easy to you today.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You'll look for the quick way out of things today, though you know that what is most expeditious is not always best for you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you're involved in any type of mental work today have a back-up to check on you. You're prone to make and overlook errors.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Speculative ventures aren't for you. You may feel lucky today, but risky undertakings will only take money out of your pocket.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Others will take you at your word today. Be careful not to promise something you have neither the means nor the inclination to deliver.

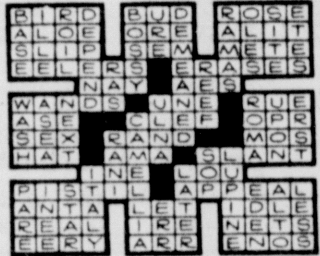

Your Birthday, June 1, 1975

You will set some lofty goals for yourself this year. They are attainable, provided you have the tenacity to pursue them. Follow through!

Jennings wins CIF long jump

By KEVIN CLOE
PB Staff Writer

NORWALK — Marcus Jennings didn't think he had a chance. Then he surprised himself.

Jennings, Mr. Versatility from Ontario High, will be going to San Diego next weekend as the CIF Southern Section champion in the long jump.

He'll be competing in the state track and field meet after winning the Masters Meet Friday night at Cerritos College.

His winning distance: 24 feet 5 3/4 inches.

"When I got there, I didn't think I'd do very well," the Ontario senior star commented before mounting the victory stand. "The jumping board was too narrow. At the invitationals, I saw jumping boards like that and didn't do very well. But I had a couple of good jumps tonight. I jumped around 25 feet but stepped over the board."

So Jennings will lead a contingent of six valley athletes into San Diego.

The only other valley qualifier in the boys' competition Friday night was Pomona hurdler Dwayne Jackson, who finished fifth in the 330 lows with a time of 37.7 seconds.

Four valley girls made the cut to the state meet. They include Upland hurdler Cornelia (Corny) Sonnenburg, Chino high jumper Sherri Morris, Claremont long jumper Jenny Stary and Upland quarter miler Linda Hightower.

Jackson was in very good position down the stretch in his event, running shoulder to shoulder with San Bernardino's David Cooper. But when he reached the last hurdle he nicked it and stumbled slightly.

"That last hurdle!" That's what Jackson said in frustration. "When I was coming down the straightaway I felt strong and thought for sure I would get third place. But then I hit that last hurdle. I was a little skeptical coming into this meet," he added.

Progress Bulletin Sports

"I was looking at some of the other times and saw what lane I was in (lane 8). Being in that eighth lane, I couldn't see anybody. The only one I could see at all was Cooper."

That 37.7 was his second fastest time of the year. He was clocked in 37.5 at the Mt. San Antonio Relays—also running in the eighth lane.

Sonnenburg was the first valley gal to qualify with a third place finish in the 80-yard low hurdles in 11.3 seconds. Then came Morris' third place finish in the high jump at 5 feet 3 inches. Julie Lendl of Royal High won that event with a CIF record performance of 5 feet 5 inches.

Stary had the best qualifying position with a second place at 17 feet 5 1/2 inches in the long jump. Winner Lis Gourdiene of El Toro cleared 17 feet 7 1/2 inches.

Hightower also took a third with a 59.0 clocking in the quarter mile.

The Claremont girls finished 16th in the team scoring with eight points. Upland and Chino each compiled six points. Royal High won the girls CIF championships with 38 points.

Five CIF records were established in the meet, with the girls taking four of them. The lone record in the boys' competition went to Loara's Ralph Serna, who won the mile over Huntington Beach's Robert Angel and Launa Beach's Eric Hulst with a time of 4:08.3. The old record was held by Terry Williams of Lompoc at 4:08.4.

The loss, however, didn't stop Hulst. The Laguna Beach superstar clocked the second best two-mile time of the year in winning handily over Serna in 8:51.8.

The girls records went in the high jump (Lendl's 5-5), the 100 (Centennial's Leida Hunter in 11.2), the 220 (Miss Hunter in 25.4), and the 880 medley relay (Royal's 1:48.6).

One of the CIF's toughest competitors was denied a trip to San Diego after apparently winning the 880. Tom Lloy of Edison was disqualified after winning the event in 1:53.2. He had been penalized for stepping on the lane line three times in the first time.

Some of the other valley competitors from Friday night who will not make the trip to San Diego include Pomona shotputter Hank Zibell (sixth place with a 56-3/4), Ganesha 120 high hurdler Lloyd Jones (sixth place at 14.5), Ontario gal Rene Carter (seventh place in 26.5 in the 220), Pomona long jumper Arthur Hodges (10th place 22 feet even), and Garey long jumper Stan Webster (didn't place).

BACK IN TIME

Citrus' Jim Ayers gets back to the bag in time on a pickoff attempt.

Cerritos first baseman Bob McKelvey tries to make the tag.

Cerritos takes lead in state JC finals

By GRAHAM CROW

PB Correspondent

The pitching of Charlie Kretschmar, the power hitting of John Alvarez and the slow starting offense of Citrus College, enabled two-time defending champion Cerritos to down the Owls, 5-4, in the crucial first game for the California Junior College Baseball Championship.

The same two schools return to the Citrus field today at 11:30 a.m. A second game, should Citrus capture the opener, will follow 20 minutes after the conclusion of the first.

Friday's initial contest between the Southern Division champion Falcons and Skip Clapgood's Owls, winners of the Northern Division playoffs, was dominated by pitching the first seven and one-half innings.

But the ending couldn't have been more exciting, with the standing room, only crowd treated to a ninth inning in which both teams scored three runs and Citrus had the potential winning run on first with the tying marker being stranded at third. After opening up a 2-0 lead on a pair of infield hits and a bombing double off Alvarez's bat, Cerritos seemed in command as Kretschmar was constantly throttling the Citrus batters.

The Owls' first hit was a bloop single by Jim Ayers in the second inning and no other Citrus player reached base until the fifth when Gary Bach was stranded after belting a two out double.

Kretschmar's control had been perfect all afternoon as the sophomore righthander only allowed three outfield outs during his stint on the mound.

He showed signs of tiring in the home half of the eighth when the massive Owl rooting section had something to cheer about as Todd Ervin scored on a head first dive after walking and then advancing on singles by Dave Hostetler and Worth Valentine.

But Citrus starter Ron Walton had his only rough inning in the ninth when the Falcons broke things open.

Walton issued his second walk of the game, putting Gary Brown on with one out. Following a deep drive to left that Jim McCadden hauled in off the bat of Rex. Ives, third baseman Alvarez powered a slider out over the left field fence to increase the lead to 4-1.

Walton yielded two more singles before John Field came on in relief and was immediately greeted with a single by Doug McCulloch that produced the eventual winning run.

While many people had left thinking the game was over, Clapgood's troops battle back in their final at bat. Ayers started by lining his third single of the day up the middle.

Kretschmar settled down to fan pinch hitter Joe Sansom but then yielded back to back singles to Bach and Greg Johnston that produced a run. Ervin walked on four pitches to load the bases and Cerritos coach Wally Kincaid brought in Donn Mullen.

Mullen's accuracy wasn't any better as he missed on four straight pitches to Kim Eppard, forcing in a run and forcing Mullen's exit.

Steve Hansen was summoned from the Falcon bullpen and induced Tony Janusz to ground to short. What might have been a game ending double play was prevented, however when pinch runner Joe Sunyogt wrapped up Ives at second base, allowing a run to score, making it 5-4.

But Worth Valentine, who struck out with two men on in the first and grounded out with a man on second in the sixth, grounded to second for the final out.

Remarkably, it was the 21st consecutive victory for Cerritos over Citrus dating all the way to 1962. But Clapgood sees things a little different today.

"We haven't lost two games in a row all year," the Citrus skipper said. "And I don't think it will happen now. People saw an excellent college game today between two teams that are almost mirror images of each other."

Citrus, 33-9 on the year, will send Jim Arkison (6-1) to the mound in the first game with possibly Field slated for the nightcap. Cerritos, 34-7, will counter with either Walt Bigos (7-3 or Hansen (9-3).

Jim Palmer blanks Halos

ANAHEIM (AP) — Jim Palmer pitched a four-hitter and hurled his fourth shutout of the season, enabling the Baltimore Orioles to snap a seven-game losing streak with a 5-0 victory over the California Angels Friday night.

Palmer, blanking the Angels for the second straight time this year and running his career record against them to 134, struck out six and walked one to improve his record to 83. Palmer has been the winning pitcher in four of Baltimore's last six victories.

The Orioles rapped eight hits to hand Ed Figueroa, 3-1, his first loss of the year and the Angels their sixth loss in seven games.

Lee May singled twice and drove in two runs for the Orioles while Bobby Grich, snapping an 0-for-25 slump, also had two singles as did Don Baylor.

The closest California came to scoring was in the sixth inning when fleet Mickey Rivers tripled off the bullpen fence in right field but was cut down at home plate trying for an inside-the-park homer.

Baltimore also gave the speedy Angels a taste of their own medicine by stealing five bases, including two apiece by Baylor and Grich.

Dodgers will try to hold 3-1 lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Davey Lopes' tie-breaking home run with two out in the fifth inning snapped a 1-1 tie and the Los Angeles Dodgers led Chicago 3-1 Friday when their game was suspended because of darkness with the Cubs coming to bat in the eighth inning.

The game was to be completed before the start of Saturday's regularly scheduled game.

Don Sutton stands to be the winning pitcher. It would boost his season record to 9-3 and would be only his fifth victory in 21 career decisions against the Cubs.

The game was delayed 59 minutes in the first inning because of rain. Then the Cubs jumped ahead in the second inning on a double by Rick Monday, an infield out and a sacrifice fly by Manny Trillo.

Los Angeles tied it in the fourth on doubles by Steve Garvey and Ron Cey, went ahead in the fifth on Lopes' homer and added another run in the sixth on Garvey's double and a single by Ivan de Jesus.

Although the Dodgers rapped Burris for 10 hits, received three walks and had one hit batsman, they were unable to get rid of him until the seventh.

After the rain delay, Bill Buckner doubled with one out in the first but was left stranded.

Willie Crawford singled to open the second and stole second but could advance no farther. With one out in the third, Lopes walked but Buckner lined into a double play.

With two outs in the seventh, the Dodgers loaded the bases on a single by Garvey and a pair of walks. Oscar Zamora took over for Burris and got Cey to bounce into a fielders' choice.

After 7 1/2 innings, the game was suspended because of darkness and will be resumed today with a 10:15 p.m. starting time.

Prefontaine mourned

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — "In Europe, normal people don't get that close to an athlete, but here he was just like anyone else on the street, very friendly."

It was Jaako Tuominen speaking only an hour or two after learning that Steve Prefontaine, America's premier distance runner, had been killed in an early morning automobile accident.

Prefontaine had arranged for a group of six Finnish athletes to come to the United States for a series of track and field meets on the West Coast, mainly in the Northwest.

Tuominen was the leader of the Finnish group.

"He was very outgoing," Tuominen said of Prefontaine. "He was friendly to everyone."

"He stayed with me last summer for four or five weeks when he was running in Europe, Tuominen said. "He was a good friend....He was a different person here. He could relax over there. There was no worry about finances."

"Here it was different. He was very busy. He had had a lot of pressure, setting up all these meets. He wanted to do better as a promoter than he did here."

Prefontaine said he planned to set up more meets in the future if his first attempt at promoting was successful.

Tuominen said he and the six Finnish athletes had planned to leave for home Friday but more than likely would remain in the United States until after the funeral on Monday in Prefontaine's hometown of Coos Bay, Ore.

Tuominen said he telephoned the news to the athletes this morning, "waking up a couple of them. It's really hard for them to understand, to realize what happened, that he's not here anymore."

"He was really close to us," Tuominen stayed at the home of Geoff Hollister in Eugene on Thursday night after a reception for the Finnish delegation at Hollister's home. "When Geoff got the call this morning and said something had happened, at first I thought it was one of our guys," Tuominen said.

About 30 people had gathered at Hollister's home as a sendoff for the Finnish delegation.

Prefontaine left with his girl friend around midnight, Hollister said, and apparently took the young woman home just before the crash.

Maxine Gauthier of Madras, Ore., a friend of Prefontaine's, was at the reception. She and her husband, Robert, helped set up a meet in the Central Oregon town, first stop on the Finnish delegation's tour.

"He was really tired and he was really excited," she said of Prefontaine when he left the Hollister home. "He was excited about next Saturday's Bowerman meet."

Prefontaine planned to run next in the Bill Bowerman Classic in Eugene on June 7.

Mounties, Owls vie

JC spikers in state meet

BAKERSFIELD — Surprising Mt. San Antonio College, bolstered by last weekend's third place finish in the Southern California junior college track and field finals, will challenge Bakersfield College today for the state JC title.

Bakersfield captured its fifth Southern California championship in six years by scoring 55 points. Glendale was second with 50 and MSAC was third with 39 points. Valley neighbor Citrus College was fifth with 22 points.

The Mounties will enter nine athletes in four events for the state meet which begins at 6 p.m.

Triple jumpers Stan Bland and Ehrlicke Scott, both of Pomona, provided the points that propelled the Mounties to third place. Bland placed second with a leap of 48-feet, 7¾ inches and Scott was third with 48-6¾.

Other second place finishes were turned in by hurdler Andre Hall in the 120 highs and pole vaulter Kevin French who soared 15-feet.

MSAC's mile relay team of John Houston, Dave Kellogg, Willie Davis and Don Reeves will be looking to improve on their school record time of 3:12.9, set last week while they finished third.

Citrus will be counting on sprinter Pat Cranor who won the Southern California 220 title with a 21.4 clocking. He came back for a state meet qualifying fourth in the 100 with a time of 9.9 seconds.

Cranor is regularly faster than 9.9 in the 100, so he may be a threat to capture both springs.

Both MSAC and Citrus teams left Friday for the state meet. They will return Sunday.

Andretti and Unser dismiss Indy finish

MT. POCONO, Pa. — The "sting" of the Indianapolis 500 isn't gone for the Viceroy racing duo of Mario Andretti and Al Unser but the outlook ahead is certainly brighter.

They find themselves this weekend where they left themselves in a rainstorm May 4 — each on the "pole" for Sunday's two qualifying races at Pocono.

As the two fastest drivers for the Purlator 5000, the season's opening Formula 500 event, Andretti and Unser can dismiss some of the memories of last Sunday's Indy 500. Andretti crashed and Unser retired early in twin Viceroy-Eagles.

"I had no warning," recalls Andretti about his accident. "I was going 195 m.p.h. down the backstraight when suddenly I couldn't control the car."

Andretti spun, hit the wall broadside and miraculously escaped injury. Neither he nor his crew could identify the cause at the time.

Internal disorders in the engine of Unser's car eliminated the two-time 500 winner early in the rain-shortened race won by his brother Bobby.

The Viceroy-Lolas — model T-332 — offer Andretti and Unser an edge on Pocono's 2.8-mile road course that wasn't available on the oval with their Eagles.

Andretti, who won three Formula 5000 races last year while barely missing the overall championship, easily dominated time trials here May 3. His average speed of 126.86 m.p.h. was unchallenged.

Unser, whose experience in the series was limited to two starts last year, averaged 124.97 m.p.h., second only to his teammate.

The performances earned them No. 1 starting positions in Sunday's two qualifying heats which will determine the lineup for the Purlator 5000.

Andretti will attempt to unseat champion Brian Redman of England. The competition this time has deepened with the addition of his teammate, Al Unser, and last week's Indy winner, Bobby Unser.

The nine-race series will move next to Mosport Park, Canada, June 15.

Four in Sun fold

ANAHEIM (AP) — The Southern California Sun of the World Football League said Thursday it had signed four college players, including linemen Art Kuehn and Eugene Jones of UCLA.

The team said it had also signed defensive tackle Greg Mardarian, 6-3, 245, of the University of Southern California and Chris Moynier, a 6-4, 220 tight end from San Jose State.

Kuehn, 6-3, 257, was named the outstanding Bruin senior last season as the UCLA center. Jones, 6-2, 223, played tight end and linebacker.

For assistant coaches

'Bear' asks help

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama said Friday he plans to keep making noises "until administrators get off their backsides and do something" to provide financial security for assistant college coaches.

The longtime football coach said he wants a pension plan established for assistant coaches and trainers, "the men who contribute more to our programs than perhaps anybody else but who have no security."

Bryant is trying to get the National Collegiate Athletic Association to sanction a spring football game by each member with part of the proceeds funding a pension plan.

"Pro baseball and football take care of their own with a special game," he said. "Why can't we do it?"

"If we could have that spring game, I'd guarantee Alabama would line up with Ohio State, Notre Dame, Oklahoma, Texas or somebody like that and put some money in the kitty," Bryant said in an interview in the Birmingham News.

"I've been trying to get something done for assistant coaches for years, and haven't had much luck. We keep talking, and we're interested, but not much is being done."

"Well now, everyone is hunting ways to increase revenue and cut costs—I hope we can do both—and this spring game is being studied. I proposed that game 20 years ago. But I'd like to see something from it for folks who'd be mainly responsible for putting it on, and are forgotten men as far as job security is concerned."

Bryant said it distresses him "to go to a national convention and see the lobby full of men who have contributed so much looking for jobs. It tears your guts out."

"I'm not talking about head coaches. They're well paid, and have good contracts—or are stupid if they don't. I'm talking about assistant coaches without contract safeguards, or tenure."

"Take the case of Ken Donahue on the Alabama staff," Bryant said. "There isn't a better coach in America. But suppose something happened to me. The new coach would want his own men. So here would be a middle-aged coach, who has done a heck of a job for Alabama, out looking for a job perhaps."

"And the country's full of cases like Ken's. His status and those like him prompt me to keep on trying to get somebody interested in the situation. I intend to get some attention."

"And I can't forget trainers, either. Take that Mickey O'Brien up at Tennessee who retired. He may be rich; I don't know. But I know he contributed so much to Tennessee. He's been there since ought-11, I guess, and did a terrific job."

"But I'll bet it would have been a lot easier on his mind if he'd known all along that the longer he served the more secure his retirement years would be."

Jumpers return to Dolphins

MIAMI (AP) — Once lured away by the World Football League, Miami Dolphins players Tim Foley and Bob Kuechenberg will be back with Coach Don Shula's team next season, the Dolphins said Friday.

A club spokesman said Foley and Kuechenberg have signed contracts "for more than one year." Terms were not disclosed.

Foley, a 27-year-old safety from Purdue, and Kuechenberg, also 27 and an offensive guard from Notre Dame, last September jointly announced their defection to the WFL's Birmingham Americans.

But both extricated themselves from WFL contracts earlier this year after claiming that the Birmingham franchise did not live up to the agreements.

Foley, a starter for the Dolphins' Super Bowl championship teams in 1973 and 1974, was relegated to the bench with a shoulder injury early last season. But after his publicized jump to the WFL, Foley saw much more playing time.

Kuechenberg has been a Dolphin starter through most of his five years with the team.

JOHNNY WONDER

Johnny Wonder's QUESTION CORNER

Opals are gemstones with a pearly luster. When held up to the light, the finest opals give off brilliant flashes of color.

Opals are made mostly of the materials of common sand, or silica, and usually contain a small amount of water.

Opals do not flash their color because of any coloring matter in them. The flashes of color they give off are caused by the different layers of silica material and the amount of water they contain.

The many layers break up the light which strikes a stone, and reflect it in a shimmering play of rainbow colors.

Opals that give off brilliant flashes of color are called "precious" opals. Black opals are the rarest and most valuable.

Because an opal contains water, it may dry out and "check," or crack, after a long time in dry air.

Many finished stones are protected by water or films of oil until they are sold.

A pocket radio, camera, World Almanac globe or other fine prize will be awarded to the first youngster sending in a question used here. Send your question and your age to Johnny Wonder, (c/o this newspaper), Box 1336 (DA), Santa Cruz, CA 95061.

News magnate sees China as
'most potent'

HONG KONG (AP) — Lord Thomson of Fleet, the newspaper magnate, said recently that China is "on the way to becoming the most powerful country in the world."

Thomson, who arrived Sunday after a 10-day visit to China, told the Foreign Correspondents' Club:

"Everybody is being fed adequately and everybody seems to be clothed adequately. ...

"There are no beggars, no prostitutes ... no rats, no mice and very few flies. Altogether they have done a real job."

Thomson said the Chinese were dedicated and frank.

"There was a lack of the secretiveness which I saw in Russia in my various trips there," he said.

The Chinese people "are doing things that are necessary to be done to build the nation," he added.

In the event that a surety bond is submitted in lieu of a check, it shall be subject to the condition that the surety thereon be approved by the County Auditor and County Counsel.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and to waive technical errors and discrepancies, if to do so seems to best serve the interests of the County.

Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 1770 to 1777, inclusive, of the Labor Code of the State of California, the Board of Supervisors has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the proposed contract, and it will be required that not less than said rates be paid to all such workmen employed or engaged on the work. Complete wage rate schedules are on file at the offices of the Board of Supervisors and the County Road Department.

The rate of compensation for any classification not listed in the schedule, but which may be required to execute the proposed contract, shall be commensurate and in accord with the rates specified for similar or comparable classifications or for those performing similar or comparable duties.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS: Bidders must satisfy themselves by personal examination of location of the proposed work and by such other means as they may prefer as to the actual conditions and requirements of the work, and shall not at any time after submission of the bid dispute, complain, or assert that there was any misunderstanding in regard to the nature or amount of work to be done.

The contractor to whom this contract is awarded will be required, before execution of the contract by the County Board of Supervisors, to file with the County Board of Supervisors surety bonds as follows:

A "Faithful Performance Bond" amounting to 100% of the total contract price is required for all contracts.

A "Payment Bond" (labor and material) amounting to 50% of the total contract price is required for all contracts which have a total contract price in excess of $10,000.

By order of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles, State of California.

Warren group never knew of Castro plot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The CIA and the Justice Department withheld information about CIA involvement in attempts to assassinate Fidel Castro from members of the Warren Commission investigating President John F. Kennedy's death, according to knowledgeable sources.

Two former officials of the Central Intelligence Agency who acknowledged that the Warren Commission never was told about a 1961 plot on the Cuban premier's life insisted that no conscious decision was made to withhold the information. Instead, they contend it never occurred to anyone at the CIA that the Kennedy assassination could have been ordered by Castro in retaliation for U.S.-sponsored attempts on his life.

"It just simply did not figure in anyone's thinking," one of the officials said.

Both John J. McCloy, a former member of the Warren Commission, and Secretary of Transportation William T. Coleman, who as an attorney for the commission was responsible for investigating the possibility that Lee Harvey Oswald was part of a foreign conspiracy, confirmed that they had not been told of any CIA plots against Castro at the time of their investigation.

Both men refused to speculate on what effect, if any, knowledge of such a plot would have had on the investigation, which concluded that there was no credible evidence linking Oswald to a conspiracy.

The information withheld concerned a 1961 plot against Castro involving contacts between the CIA and mobsters Sam Giancana and John Roselli.

The existence of that plot has been confirmed by two high intelligence sources, and several other news organizations have reported that the Rockefeller Commission possesses Justice Department documents, one reportedly written by former FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, which also confirm the existence of the Giancana-Roselli plot.

The sources describe the plot as having originated in the Eisenhower administration and designed to coincide with the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion.

A recent head of CIA operations in Latin America, David A. Phillips, has denied the CIA was involved in any Castro assassination plots, as far as he knew.

Phillips, who became head of the agency's western hemisphere division in June 1973, recently resigned to launch a public defense of the CIA.

However, he said that because there has been so much talk of a CIA role in Latin American assassination attempts, "there must be something there ... in terms of discussion."

According to one former high official with firsthand knowledge, President

Kennedy's brother, then Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, was told about the plot in 1962 and was warned that Justice Department prosecution of the two underworld figures could result in public disclosure of the scheme.

Documents on file in the National Archives show that in June 1964, Chief Justice Earl Warren wrote to Robert F. Kennedy asking "whether you have any information suggesting that the assassination of President Kennedy was caused by a domestic or foreign conspiracy."

Kennedy replied in August 1964, more than two years after he reportedly had been told of the Giancana-Roselli plot, that "I know of no credible evidence to support the allegation that the assassination of President Kennedy was caused by a domestic or foreign conspiracy."

There was no immediate explanation of why Robert Kennedy's letter failed to raise the Giancana-Roselli plot. Although Castro has stated publicly he was aware of CIA plots against his life, there is no independent evidence indicating that he knew about the Giancana-Roselli plot at the time of the Kennedy assassination. One source has said that the plot never got past the planning stage, out columnist Jack Anderson has reported that Roselli made a number of unsuccessful attempts on Castro's life.

Students learn to take dinner party in stride

You've invited 90 guests to your first dinner party. They're due in three hours.

The tables are not set and you've just put 25 chickens in the oven.

How do you feel?

"Not too nervous" was the answer of Renee Florsheim of Long Beach, a sophomore in Cal Poly's Hotel and Restaurant Management course.

As a catering class requirement, Renee and her partner, Nancy Donovan of El Monte, were responsible for preparing and serving a Hawaiian dinner at Kellogg West, continuing education center on the campus, where the class is held.

Their 17 classmates who would serve as waiters, waitresses, busboys and assisting chefs were due to arrive at 3 p.m.

Each Friday night during the quarter, a different team is responsible for preparing and serving a meal, complete with decorations and entertainment.

The catering class dinners are served to friends of the class, faculty members and other invited guests who pay a nominal cost.

The Hotel and Restaurant Management course leads to a bachelor of science degree and is under the auspices of the School of Business Administration.

Core courses in the specific major include accounting, business law, marketing principles, computing, food services classes and nutrition. A senior project, required of all students, includes various projects which range from study program sponsored by Fred Harvey at the Grand Canyon to appren-

Doc Peirsol It happened in Pomona

We are very little changed from the Pomonans who ranged these parts more than 80 years ago.

We're opinionated, we're boastful, we're proud of this city we call home and we seldom lose an opportunity to let the rest of the world know how much better off we are than those poor, benighted souls who through force of circumstance must live in areas far, far inferior to our Pomona paradise.

But when it comes to reminding outsiders how unfortunate they really are, I assure you few if any of us can even faintly approach that masterpiece of gloating once penned by a Pomona pioneer who really knew how to hurt his Eastern friends. And just to show you what an expert he was at rubbing people's noses in their geographical misfortune, here are some excerpts from a letter written by C.A. Loud to family friends in Michigan in 1893.

"It is always a pleasure to write back to the poor devils who are digging around in two or three feet of snow, or freezing to death trying to think they enjoy a sleigh ride to church with the mercury way below zero. — But here we are working out in the sunshine without a coat, and there is no fire burning in the house except at meal time, and the oranges are ripe and the lemons are in bloom.

Coming here with nothing, I have been able to do what not one Michigan farmer in 500 with 160 acres of good land and all the necessary outfits for operating it could accomplish in 10 to 20 years.—Here the sun shines and we nose around in our shirtsleeves, and the birds sing, and the little piglets root around in the clover, and the laying hens hide their nests in the tall grass.—We would waft on the wings of every mail our warmest sympathy and express in unmeasured terms our sorrows that you are unable to enjoy all this with us."

Hobnail glass is a true treasure

By DOROTHY HAMMOND

By Dorothy Hammond
Question: I am enclosing a photograph of a very old cranberry glass bowl that once belonged to my mother, so it has to be well over 75-80 years old. From my photo you can see its beautiful color and brilliance. It is 8 inches in diameter, and 3½ inches deep. The hobnails are very pointed. There are 10 rows of these, beginning at the bottom center. I will appreciate any information you have on this piece and its possible value. N.H.

Answer: Your exquisite hobnail bowl is worth from $175-$225, if perfect. It is rare to find an example not having some damage—either a bruised or a chipped hob, especially around the base portion.

Hobnail is one of our most interesting patterns in pressed glass, and has been extremely appealing to collectors over the years because of its many color combinations. It dates from the 1870s, and although it was made by numerous glass manufacturers, much of the ware is credited to the Hobbs, Brockunier Company of Wheeling, West Virginia. Early examples have quite pointed or sharp hobs, whereas the later pieces became more "flattened."

ships with businesses in the area.

Support and elective courses in the major include American civilization, statistics, economics, composition, public speaking and systems analysis.

Additionally, all students are required to take the basic classes required for a degree at Cal Poly.

A number of businesses and trade associations encourage the program with financial support, guidance, research facilities and guest lecturers.

"Food is only a part of the experience of dining out," said George Quinn, the catering class teacher.

"It takes more than a good apple pie to be successful in the restaurant business today."

The major was established at Cal Poly in 1971 because of the industry's growing demand for men and women trained at the management level in the hospitality industry.

The Cal Poly course is the only one offered in California and one of the few available in the Western states. A similar course is offered at the University of Nevada. The first restaurant management course was established more than 50 years ago at Cornell University.

Students in the field come from many backgrounds and have entered for varied reasons.

"I was a music major, but dropped out of college twice because I was unhappy," said Renee. "Then I went to work at House of Pies and - presto - I was hooked."

"I discovered a whole new world in the restaurant business and now look forward to owning my own place some day."

Nancy isn't so sure that the hotel or restaurant business will be her career.

"I'm just taking a lot of classes and exploring," said the sophomore as she busily sliced 20 pounds of carrots for the dinner salad.

Sharing her carrot-cutting duties was John Witteman of West Covina, a junior.

"This training leads to a concrete job," John said. A business major for two years, John also dropped out of college because he wasn't sure what he wanted to do. Now he combines his education with a job at Charlie Brown's in Covina.

One who really combines his education and his job is Donald Kendrick, president of the University's Hotel and Restaurant Management Club.

He works at the Cask 'n' Cleaver Restaurant in Cucamonga and reported, "I'm always combining what I learn at one place with what I need to know at the other."

Kendrick became interested in restaurant work while serving with the Navy in Hawaii. While on the islands, he took a bartending course which led him into moonlighting at a lot of parties and clubs.

For obvious reasons, Kendrick became president of the recreation committee on his submarine and planned the crew's entertainment when the ship was in port.

"While touring all the restaurants in Honolulu, I discovered that if the food was good, the atmosphere was bad."

Kendrick said he was delighted to discover Cal Poly offered the course he wanted, since he was originally from La Verne.

Another student whose past experience led him into the field is Ralph Mercer of San Juan Capistrano. The son of an oil engineer, Mercer has visited major hotels around the world over an extended time.

"I really formed ideas as to what made a good hotel and I'm eager to try my hand," said Mercer, who plans to enter hotel and travel management. He transferred to Cal Poly from University of Nevada.

Because of increased leisure time and the growing number of travelers, the long-range prospects for the Cal Poly students seems assured, according to Quinn.

Low cost luxury...

... mobile home living

TOM PAYNE SURVEYS SCENE FROM SPACIOUS BEDROOM

PAYNES ENTERTAIN GUEST MARGARET INGHAM IN LIVING ROOM

Tom Payne figures he can explain the current mobile home craze better than anyone else.

Payne is co-owner with his wife, Irma, of Tom Payne's International Mobile Homes, 4480 Holt Blvd., Montclair.

He claims mobile home living is "easier." To sum it up, he says residents can enjoy "country club living without the cost of it."

Shuffleboard, swimming, whirlpool baths and billiards are activities available in mobile home parks, and residents do not have the responsibility of caring for them, he adds.

Payne himself lives in a mobile home at Los Serranos, and likes the added security. "It's rare for a mobile home to be burglarized."

Also, mobile home owners do not have the feeling of being tied down, as in the case of conventional homes, he says.

Younger persons turn to mobile homes because of the lower cost — and this is a major factor in purchases. "Prices are out of this world for conventional homes," said Payne. "The average, working person can't afford to buy one. They can't qualify for the payments to save their soul."

Payne, a mobile home dealer in the valley for the past seven years, has been emphasizing the Silvercrest line. Currently, he is showing the "T" Model, which covers 2,016 square feet.

"Silvercrest is the better mobile home for a lower cost," says Payne. "This line will give the customer the best home for his dollar." He claims to be the only dealer in the valley to carry the Silvercrest line.

"Business has been good lately in our market because of the quality and floor plan selections in the Silvercrest line," he adds. "We also enjoy a good reputation in the area."

And Payne has expanded his dealership, just recently, to Los Serranos. He and his wife, who live at Lake Los Serranos Park, 15111 Pipeline Ave., opened a branch sales office there.

Payne's staff in Los Serranos includes two salesmen, Bob Pitts and Mac McLuren. Sales people in Montclair are Margaret Ingham and Dorris Gregg.

"We enjoy this business and feel that since we are small, we can do a better job for our customers," Payne noted.

He has also been active in civic affairs such as the Montclair Chamber of Commerce and Pomona Elks Lodge, besides retaining membership in the Trailer Coach Association and California Mobile Home Dealers Association.

Payne's sales offices are open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. every day except Thursday, where, he maintains, "the customer's needs come first."

TOM AND IRMA Payne enjoy a break at the wet bar of one of their many models of mobile homes. Payne says in today's money crunch, couples can obtain a country club living level without the high cost involved by owning a mobile home in today's posh mobile home parks. Young and elderly couples alike are turning to mobile homes as an inflationary weapon.

Parkinson's view of 'big business'

By MURRAY PROJECTOR

BIG BUSINESS By C. Northcote Parkinson, Little Brown & Co., $9.95.

This latest book by C. Northcote Parkinson, the originator of "Parkinson's Law," is not what one expects from the title. It is not an indictment, critique or attack on big business; it is an explanation and an appraisal.

(Murray Projector is a Pomona Valley Actuary and business consultant.)

The style does agree with our expectations. Irony, wit, and urbanity identify the authentic Parkinson, but always with something significant to say.

The author believes that the "central problem of the future in the USA and Europe is somehow to reconcile the competence of big business with the ineffectiveness of politics."

It is not a question of individual abilities, but of institutional settings. "The trade route is a reality and the frontier a fiction. It may not be impossible to enthrone fiction as the ultimate truth but the result is usually unstable."

The author's conclusions are reserved for his sixth and final chapter: "The Value and Future of Big Business." Prior to that, he guides us leisurely through the world of big business not with adulation but with detachment, and always with an awareness of what is simultaneously informative and entertaining.

Big businesses began as small businesses, each with its own mixture of failings, achievements, follies, foresight and luck. When they become big, they change. "The sanctity of size put them in a different world, and they passed to a scale and diversity which their founders would regard with amazement and, quite possibly, with horror."

Well chosen cartoons and photographs enhance the text. One cartoon shows the office boy in the president's office saying, "To put it frankly, Mr. Morgan, I don't feel I'm getting my fair share of the gravy." Equally memorable, for example, is a photograph (circa 1939) of Howard Hughes with Ginger Rogers.

Parkinson laments the change caused by big business in transforming people into personnel. As compensation, however, the yes or no of single-minded big business is simple, straight, understandable and honest, and hard to find in any other walk of life.

"Big Business" concludes with the following paragraph. Whether you agree with it or not, it is a defensible and hopeful conclusion, arrived at by an incomparable observer:

"No world government founded on the belief that the nations will be united can succeed. The whole idea of nationality rests upon divergent interests and mutual suspicion, sharply drawn frontiers and ill-concealed fear. Set quite apart from the blood-stained arena of nationalism is the new world of big business, a world where the jealousies of the nation-states are actually forgotten. If we are to have a prosperous future we shall owe it to men who have already learnt how to cooperate and have come to see the world as one."

Author hits plea deals

By JOAN HANAUER
ONE JUST MAN By James Mills. Simon & Schuster, $7.95

In the crowded courts of many major cities, a practice known as "plea bargaining" has become the indispensable weapon of lawyers and the district attorney's office.

Under the system, a defendant pleads guilty to a lesser charge than the one for which he was arrested and is rewarded with a light sentence. No one likes its constant use, except the criminals who manipulate the practice to win easy freedom.

In this novel, a lawyer for the Legal Aid Society in New York City — the "one just man" of the title — concludes plea bargaining has ruined the American system of justice beyond repair. He decides to wreck the system in the hope that its replacement will be stronger, more efficient and just.

His method is simplicity itself; he persuades his numerous Legal Aid clients to demand their right to a trial. Prisoners stream into city jails, overtaxing already crowded facilities. The system topples quickly, almost too quickly for the reader's credibility.

The result is chaos. A riot breaks out in the city's major prison. The police and firemen call strikes. Armed vigilantes roam the streets. Then, the city's people begin to flee.

The calamities pile one on another with rising tempo but rarely seem improbable. The author, who wrote "Report to the Commissioner," has set the scene well in descriptions of the courts and of the people who work and are judged there.

One Just Man has the power of a pile driver and the pace of a racing police car. Its comment on the state of justice in America is frightening and important to the future.

Nixon before Watergate

By N. E. ROSENTHAL

BEFORE THE FALL — By William Safire. Doubleday. $12.50.

In a career that never strayed from the controversial, Richard Nixon presented many faces to the world: Nixon the Communist-hunter; Nixon the peacemaker; Nixon the silent majority spokesman; Nixon the congressman, senator, vice president; Nixon the President; Nixon the stonewaller.

Now it's Nixon the recluse. What was Richard Nixon really like?

"He seemed resigned... to the notion that nobody would ever transmit what he was like out to the public," writes William Safire in a book that goes further in trying to explain Nixon than even the 1970 psycho-biography "Nixon Agonistes" by Garry Wills.

Safire, a speechwriter who came into the White House with Nixon and left when Watergate still was a White House secret in 1973, recalls one night when Nixon himself posed the question of how he would be remembered "discussing this so clinically, as if we were talking about a third person."

Nixon, he said, commented there was no way to rectify how one is perceived by others. "You think of Truman — a fighter," he told Safire. "Eisenhower — a good man. Kennedy — charisma. Johnson — work. Me — what." "He looked at me for an answer and the only thing I could think to say was 'competence. Sorry about that.' He smiled ruefully, having made his point and not liking the point he had made."

The Safire book, subtitled "an inside view of the pre-Watergate White House" is exactly that — a very long but seldom tedious recounting.

The book is filled with anecdotes, some hilarious, which have never surfaced before. It gives previously unpublished insights into the men around Nixon: Kissinger, Haldeman, Ehrlichman — and not always flattering. It also illuminates the warm side of Nixon, witness his letter to Thomas Eagleton's son after the Missouri senator was dumped from the 1972 Democratic presidential ticket.

Safire is harsh on his former boss about Watergate. The fault, he writes was "Nixon's of course... Nixon's own decisions brought Watergate about and there is no tiptoeing away from that... he was not guilty of all those crimes, but they were all his fault."

But he does not dwell on Watergate, saying "the reader who wants to take instructions from the way President Nixon disgraced himself has ready access to mountains of material and needs no more from me."

Seniors saluted

By CINDY SCHUH
POMONA CATHOLIC

Highlighting the senior graduating class of Pomona Catholic High School, 1975, was the traditional Senior Salute. A film "American Graffiti" was featured by the junior class on Tuesday, and an international luncheon, hosted by the freshmen and sophomore classes was given on Wednesday.

Students were recognized for their achievements with awards at the annual convocation ceremony on Thursday at St. Joseph auditorium. The glee club sang two selections chosen by the graduating class—"You've Grown Up At Last" and "Alma Mater."

The Baccalaureate Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. at St. Joseph's church on June 1.

Ten honor students of the junior class will form the Ivy Chain for graduation at 3, also at the church. Representing Bishop Cardinal Timothy Manning will be Msgr. John Rawden assisted by Father John Cosgrove, administrator, with the presentation of the graduating class by Sister Lucy, principal.

The glee club, directed by Sister Angelee and accompanied by Paul Chambers, organist, Ralph Tancredi, trumpeter and Pam Galligan, Margaret Padilla, and Peggy Fields, guitarists, will sing selections during the ceremony.

A Jamaican attraction

OCHO RIOS, Jamaica (AP) — One of Jamaica's most popular attractions, the "plantation tour," has a new addition. Prospect Estate, a 1,200-acre working spice and cattle plantation, recently opened for visitors' tours for the first time.

The historic property has a 17th-century fortified great house, tropical gardens and a bird sanctuary. It overlooks the north coast near Ocho Rios and the gorge of the White River which flows into the Caribbean.

The tour gives visitors a firsthand look at the cultivation of sugar cane, bananas, citrus, coconuts and spice. Cattle raising is also "shown" and there is a pavilion and snack bar for visitors.
